Blessed G/Michael Catholic Secondary School

1st Semester Citizenship Test One for Grade 9th

Oct, 2018 E.C

Time Allowed:

Name: [illegible] Sec: D R.No. 40

I. Write 'True' if the statement is correct and write 'False' if the statement is incorrect.

False 1. Ethics is the same as morality, and the terms can be used interchangeably.
True 2. A person with integrity always aligns their actions with their words.
False 3. Ethics only deals with personal feelings and opinions, not real-life actions.
True 4. One of the key values of ethics is disobedience to the law when it feels inconvenient.
True 5. Respect means treating others with dignity, regardless of differences in background.
True 6. Concern for others excludes people with disabilities, as they require separate laws.
True 7. Promise-keeping is a part of integrity that strengthens trust and relationships.

26
30

II. Match the terms in Column A with the correct description in Column B.

A		B
C	1. Integrity.	A. Following rules and upholding justice
A	2. Obeying the law.	B. Being faithful to individuals, society, and country.
C	3. Trustworthiness.	C. Being honest, reliable, and morally upright.
B	4. Loyalty.	D. Striving for quality and constant self-improvement.
D	5. Excellence.	E. Showing concern and empathy for others' needs.
		F. Being honest and dependable in relationships.

III. Choose the correct answer from the given alternatives.

C 1. A society with ethical citizens is characterized by _____.
A. Corruption and injustice.
B. Division and mistrust.
C. Sustainable peace, unity, and rule of law.
D. Violence and disorder.

D 2. Theoretical ethics is mainly concerned with _____.
A. How to apply laws.
B. Business rules.
C. Emotional intelligence.
D. The origin and nature of moral judgments.

C 3. Commitment to excellence requires to _____
A. Avoiding hard work.
B. Dependence on others.
C. Dedication, perseverance, and self-improvement.
D. Ignoring personal growth.

D 4. What we learn from Ethics?
A. Compete aggressively.
B. Ignore community needs.
C. Focus only on personal benefit.
D. Act in morally sound ways and avoid unethical actions.

C 5. What does it mean respect for humanity?
A. Supporting only people of similar background.
B. Focusing only on oneself.
C. Treating all people equally regardless of differences.
D. Avoiding interaction with others.

D 6. The term ethics originates from the Greek word ethos, which means:
A. Customs, habits, or character. C. Justice and fairness.
B. Religion and belief. D. Law and order.

D 7. Being free from addiction is considered an attribute of _____
A. Hardworking nature. C. Social responsibility.
B. Intellectual ability. D. True integrity.

C 8. Ethical values serve as:
A. Legal restrictions. C. Guiding principles to distinguish right from wrong.
B. Social traditions. D. Religious commandments.

A 9. Which of the following is not listed as a key ethical value?
A. Laziness. B. Honesty. C. Integrity. D. Fairness.

B 10. What is the meaning of Integrity?
A. Following all traditions blindly.
B. Staying true to moral principles in both private and public life.
C. Seeking personal success at any cost.
D. Being influenced by others' opinions.

D 11. Ethics mainly deals with:
A. Political systems. C. Religious rituals.
B. Economic theories. D. Moral principles and values guiding human behavior.

C 12. A person with integrity is characterized by:
A. Dishonesty and inconsistency. C. Honesty, trustworthiness, and consistency.
B. Selfishness and jealousy. D. Laziness and irresponsibility.

D 13. Ethical values are essential for citizens. Why? B/c
A. Increase personal wealth. C. Promote individualism.
B. Encourage lawlessness. D. Build a peaceful, just, and harmonious society.

D 14. Practical ethics focuses on:
A. Writing moral laws. C. Conducting philosophical research only.
B. Understanding cultural values. D. Applying moral principles in real-life situations.

A 15. Abiding by the law ensures:
A. Fairness, justice, and order. C. Social disorder.
B. Weak moral values. D. Ignorance of ethics.

C 16. Without ethical guidelines, society would _____
A. Be more productive. C. Be difficult to navigate responsibly.
B. Have fewer conflicts. D. Improve its moral standards naturally.

D 17. Ethics is important in daily life because it helps us:
A. Earn more wealth. C. Follow traditions without questioning.
A. Control others. D. Decide what is acceptable and unacceptable behavior.

A 18. Promise-keeping as an ethical value strengthens:
A. Relationships and trust. C. Individual wealth.
B. Competition and rivalry. D. Social conflict